Apartment living is all about style

By Simon Youens*

ONCE in a while, a home is created that stands out from the rest. This apartment in Patong is definitely one of those.

Situated in the best condominium buildings, it stands proud to the testament of the developers who had the courage to try something different, away from the norm and to conceive an idea born on style, function and design.

The reception lobby sets the tone, and is cool, chic and contemporary.

There is lots of glass, and mirrors and the different floor surfaces form the backdrop for the floating main glass staircase and stainless steel elevator.

The ever attentive staff will welcome you like a long lost friend, and they are always eager to please and help in any way they can.

A key card opens the door into this stunning apartment, with its high ceilings, white walls and large, high gloss floor tiles, creating a free flowing airy mood.

The entertainment area is huge and comes complete with a modern sofa, a chez lounge, a large flat screen TV, a fantastic sound system and white floor-to-ceiling window blinds.

The entertainment area leads onto a large balcony which has doors that open up to really bring the outdoors in, and let light and air flow freely through the entire apartment.

The doors and windows are made by Sun Paradise which is widely recognised as the market leader in this field.

The high gloss white kitchen has been designed and fitted by BMP and provides a breakfast bar, a hob, a microwave, an oven and a sink.

It's ideal for preparing small meals or intimate dinners.

The bedroom has fitted wardrobes with enough functional hanging space to satisfy even the best equipped fashionista, and blends in well with the surrounding décor.

The bathroom is chock-a-block full of glass and mirrors, which reflects the light and really opens up the whole area.

Specially commissioned art works by Khun Suthirak, one of Thailand's leading contemporary artists, hang throughout, providing color and substance to the sleek interior.

A rental pool is available for an astute investor to use, safe in the knowledge that the development boasts one of the highest occupancy rates on the island.

On site facilities include a stylish roof top pool and sun terrace, wi-fi throughout, an a la carte restaurant, a stylish bar and a tour office.

The apartment is ideally situated in the heart of an established hotel and restaurant area, and is only five minutes walk to Patong beach.

Buying this apartment would not only be a sound investment, it would also make a statement that you are one of a select few who appreciate the finer things in life.

For only 11,900,000 baht, you will get a spacious 95sqm of living area, and because it is freehold, ownership is simple and secure.
